We believe that everyone deserves to live in the safe, affordable housing of their choice

THE FEDERAL HOUSING ADMINISTRATION (FHA)

WHO: The Federal Housing Administration, known as FHA, provides mortgage insurance on loans made by FHA-approved lenders throughout the United States and its territories.

WHAT: FHA mortgage insurance provides lenders with protection against losses as the result of homeowners defaulting on their mortgage loans.

WHY: FHA insured loans require less cash investment, and there is more flexibility in calculating the loan.
